WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PRISON VOLUNTEER?

It means to share in the mission of the Catholic Church—to be a model of the Christian life, and to carry the message of the Gospel to all those one encounters. As St. Francis of Assisi taught,

“ Preach the Gospel and if necessary use words. ”

Prison volunteers are messengers of hope—hope in God’s mercy and love, hope for restorative justice, and hope for a second chance to change one’s life.

Dismas Ministry

Prison Ministry . . . challenges us to walk alongside youth and adults who are incarcerated. Let us as their Catholic brothers and sisters in Christ, accompany prisoners in their everyday experience of rejection, isolation, separation, and loneliness.

Please consider being part of the Archdiocese’s effort to minister to those who often hunger to hear about and receive God’s love, forgiveness, and mercy.
