

DANIEL RUDD SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Daniel Rudd Scholarship Fund is administered by the Office of Black Catholic Ministries of the Archdiocese of Baltimore. The Scholarship named after the founder of the National Black Catholic Congress is open to Catholic students from low income households. Students must also be enrolled in a Catholic grade school (entering grades 2 through 12) and currently reside in Baltimore City or Baltimore County. The Office of Black Catholic Ministries, Daniel Rudd Scholarship Fund Review Committee will award a scholarship to the student most eligible to receive the award based on the criteria requirements. The scholarship award will be distributed for the 2017-2018 school year.

In 1889 Daniel Rudd and Delegates of the very first Black Catholic Congress raised concern regarding the need for Catholic education of Black youth. Delegates at the Congress made a motion on the floor to facilitate action to achieve this goal. Today, the sons and daughters of the National Black Catholic Congress movement active in the Archdiocese of Baltimore through the Office of Black Catholic Ministries, pick up this cause by establishing this Daniel Rudd Scholarship Fund in the Archdiocese of Baltimore.
